

the LITTLE READ
LAKESHORE
AT
HERRICK DISTRICT LIBRARY

Little Read Community Cookbook

Inspired by this year's Little Read book Fry Bread: A Native American Family Story by Kevin Noble Maillard, Herrick District Library is creating a cookbook composed of recipes and stories of food traditions embraced by members of our community. Whether born of necessity as fry bread was, inspired by cultural heritage, or developed through generations of family customs, many food traditions have stories behind them. We hope you will consider sharing some of your family's stories and recipes for this community-wide collaborative book that will be available for checkout at both Herrick District Library locations! Check our website at herrickdl.org between October 1 and October 31 for more details and to submit your recipes and stories.

Friday, October 1

Online event

Little Read Storywalk

Herrick District Library and Ottawa County Parks & Recreation invite you to experience this year's Little Read Lakeshore book "Fry Bread: A Native American Family Story" in a unique way by reading page by page as you walk the beautiful trails of Hawthorn Pond Natural Area. This storywalk will be available for exploration from October 4 through October 17 anytime the park is open.

October 4–November 28

Hawthorn Pond Natural Area 9876 Black River Ct,
Holland, MI 49424

Little Read Virtual Author Visit

Herrick District Library, in partnership with Little Read Lakeshore, is thrilled to announce that Kevin Noble Maillard, author of this year's Little Read book Fry Bread: A Native American Family Story will be speaking virtually with area school classrooms this year! His presentation will also be recorded and available for viewing on the NEA Big Read's Lakeshore Youtube channel from November 12, 2021–May 12, 2022!

Kevin Noble Maillard is a professor and journalist who writes regularly for the New York Times. His debut children's book Fry Bread: A Native American Family Story won the 2020 Robert F. Sibert Informational Book Medal and was a 2020 American Indian Youth Literature Picture Book Honor Winner. Originally from Oklahoma, he is a member of the Seminole Nation, Mekusukey band.

Friday, November 12 | 9:00 AM–10:00 AM

Online event

- All Little Read events taking place at HDL are sponsored by HDL
- If you are attending an in-person library-sponsored event, please check herrickdl.org on the day of the event for any changes that may occur due to public health conditions.
- Facemasks are required for indoor library-sponsored events